INTRODUCTION

- a Blockley Parish Council is represented by 11 members (Councillors). For electoral purposes, the Parish is divided into three Wards:
  - a. Aston Magna Ward – 2 Councillors representing Aston Magna, Ditchford and Draycott
  - b. Blockley Ward – 7 Councillors representing Blockley Village
  - c. Paxford Ward – 2 Councillors representing Paxford and Northwick Park
- b The term of office is 4 years and if insufficient members are nominated for election, or interim vacancies occur, other members may be elected or co-opted to serve on the Parish Council.
- c Elections are conducted in accordance with the statutory requirements and are the responsibility of the District Council Returning Officer. Nomination forms, information, display of formal notices and other related processes are managed by the Returning Officer with the support of the Clerk/RFO.
- d Parish Councillors sign a Declaration of Acceptance of Office upon appointment that includes a commitment to comply with the Code of Conduct. In general they have three main roles:
  - a. To represent the views and concerns of the community
  - b. To maintain communication with residents and keep them informed of developments.
  - c. To attend and participate in council meetings (at which actions and expenditure are approved)
- e Council powers must be exercised through the Parish Council as a body and cannot be approved by individual members. In addition, all formal communication and correspondence should be routed through the Clerk to validate action.
- f Members should attend meetings having prepared by reading meeting notes, listening carefully to other comments, and participating through the Chair with relevant, timely and concise comments, questions or proposals. Bullying, oppressive behaviour or conflict will not be acceptable.
- g As well as Members' formal responsibilities, the size of the Parish, the extent of assets and desire to provide value for money, necessitates involvement with additional voluntary activities, including routine play area and burial ground inspections and other support work. As a consequence, efforts will be made to fill vacancies arising at or between elections.
